

Professionals undergo training in Arbitration

KIAC in partnership with The Chartered Institute of Arbitrators-UK (CIArb-UK) conducted for the 6th time, a two day introductory arbitration Course from 30th April to 1st May 2018 at KIAC office Nyarutarama. .

This internationally recognized course which was attended by 13 professionals from various institutions, gave candidates an understanding of the principles, practices and procedure of Arbitration in view of international Arbitration and key relevant aspects of the Rwandan Legal system. The sessions were conducted by prominent arbitration experts and practitioners. The course included both online lectures and assignments. The candidates who successfully complete this programme will become Associate member of CIArb and will be eligible to apply for Associate-level members of CIArb, UK

KIAC recognizes that professionals intervention in the arbitral process is very crucial. Through such capacity building initiatives, Rwanda has successfully created a pool of professionals that are promoting a pro-arbitration culture while also facilitating them to serve better in the region and efficiently compete abroad.
